

The Mitch Hansen Band, She Is Brighter

Diamonds come and diamonds go
There's one thing I'm sure I know
She will last forever
Her past is sketchy but that's alright
Just try to ruin her delight
Is it dead cold and ever
She doesn't walk she is always prancing
Only when she isn't dancing
You don't even know the things she can see
It'd be clearer if you made up your mind
Any chance she gets to throw a party
As ostentations as you'll ever find
Share your world so make them matter
Future's bright but she is brighter
She is not trapped in wonderland
It's not hard to understand
There are more than premonitions
I'm not waiting for news reports
For cast sorrow last resort
What a wonderful condition
She doesn't walk she is always prancing
Only when she isn't dancing
You don't even know the things she can see
It'd be clearer if you made up your mind
Any chance she gets to throw a party
As ostentations as you'll ever find
Share your world so make them matter
Future's bright but she is brighter
She's sold out it's time for you to disown it
'Cause something big is going down
She doesn't walk she is always prancing
Only when she isn't dancing
You don't even know the things she can see
It'd be clearer if you made up your mind
Any chance she gets to throw a party
As ostentations as you'll ever find
Share your world so make them matter
Future's bright but she is brighter
She is brighter
She is brighter
