

The Mitch Hansen Band, Sun's Lament

I loved those few months
I wish that things stayed the same
But all of that changed when
Your cold one came
For a moment I was your sun
But now he's back and
All I can do is run
Where did you go?
The girl that I know
Would never do this
We'll all grow old
And you'll have no soul
Is that you pure bliss?
Wake me up from this awful dream
If he changes you I think I'm gonna scream
Can't you see I'm not thinking of me
I'm just trying to save you from yourself
