Written by: The Moffatts & Bob Rock

VERSE # 1

I open my eyes to see her face
In a daze we engaged
Last night I slept about an hour
To fill her needs and desires

CHORUS

One more night in California, One more night with you
One more night
Ya she's alright, she's alright
One more night, one more night
In California

VERSE # 2

To the south side
I grabbed a patty and a shake
I felt the earth quake
I jumped in cab for LAX
I flipped him a tip, hey man!
Then I split

INSTRUMENTAL

I opened my eyes
To see her face
