

The Monkees, Apples, Peaches, Bananas And Pears

Apples, peaches, bananas, and pears!

I love you, girl, now that's the truth
I need you, don't be cruel, don't be cruel
Give me just a little help
And to show how much I care, I'll bring you
Apples, peaches, bananas, and pears

Run to me, girl, don't wait too long
And you'll see, I won't do you wrong
Promise me, no matter what
Forever you'll be there, I'll bring you
Apples, peaches, bananas, and pears

I've said all I can today, girl
That's the way I am
Take it for what it's worth
And throw the rest into the sun

Give me you, girl, that's all I ask
Please be true, all I want's a love to last
I'll give it all back to you
And just to prove I'm fair, I'll bring you
Apples, peaches, bananas, and pears
Whoa!

I love you, girl, now that's the truth
I need you, don't be cruel, don't be cruel
Give me just a little help
And to show how much I care, I'll bring you
Apples, peaches, bananas, and pears
