The Monkees, The Poster

By David Jones and Steve Pitts

"The circus is coming to town." it said on the poster. "Get your tickets now, before it's too late." A dancing bear and a circus clown it's so funny. I can't wait to see everything there.

I feel like I'm already there. I must see her fly through the air.

Horse running 'round and 'round in a circle. I can't wait to see everything there. I wonder if it's just like they say on the poster. If it is I know I will be there.

I feel like I'm already there. I must see her fly through the air. I feel like I'm already there. I must see her fly through the air. (repeat and fade)
