

The Monolith Deathcult, Origin

Risen from the seed of Enki
With consent of the God-father Anu
We are the working race
Created in the temples of SCH.RUPPAK
The Masters ride the midnight sky
In their lucent chariots of thunder
Those who behold the radiant face of the Gods
Died eyeless, scorched and ablaze
And God-slaves we are Suffering in the mines of our Masters
We populate the fields of E.DIN
The base of the Gods from Nibiru-Phaton
The days of Sodom are counted
Destroyers come down from the Phaton realm
To devour the mutinous creatures of Enki
Unwilling to bow for the God-father Anu
The Lord was the blessed name they carried
Composed from the leeches of the Kosmos
The Gods must be slain
So mankind will be blessed with their wisdom
In the darkest depths of AB.ZU
With the vulpine Snake on our side
Ruler of the underworld of E.DIN
We conspire against our Masters
After the dismantling of the alien Gods
We become divine
