

The Moody Blues, House Of Four Doors (Pt. 2)

Walking through that door,
Outside we came, nowhere at all.
Perhaps the answer's here, not there anymore?

Then in our hearts the light broke through,
A path lost for years is there in view.

House of four doors, you'll be lost now forever.
House of four doors, past's not life, life's forever.
House of four doors, you'll be lost now forever.
House of four doors, past's not life, life's forever.
