

The Motels, So L.A.

Walk of the town on a sun burned night
Keep in mind the dream so nice
Walk of the night that seemed so new
All of it is up to you

Jimmy cracked when he came out her
Precious dream never seemed so clear
Now he practiced a thousand times
The city that should have been his that night

And the man on the corner got something new
And something new is good for you tonight
Oh, oh, it's so L.A.

Walk of the woman that came to say
She come and walk there every day
He speciality was you, and she
Dream the same but incomplete

And the man on the corner got something new
And something new is good for you tonight
Oh, oh, it's so L.A.

Walk of time as time goes on
Walk of pain as pains prolonged
And the dream and the woman and the time and you
Are all very welcome to Hollywood

And the man on the corner got something new
And something new is good for you tonight
Oh, oh, it's so L.A.
