

The Motorhomes, Falling from grace

Sweet, falling from grace
We'll explode and crowd this place
High, spending our time
Kicking our shadows under dead pale skies
Sleep through this day
Tonight we'll live life our way
Sound, we're safe and sound
We can drive blinded, through these dim clouds
Sleep through this day
Tonight we'll live life our way
