

The Muffs, Happening

I'm a girl can anybody see
This is the life for me
Is everybody crazy?
Pardon me while I forget the rules
If you're so mighty cool
Then why are you the same dear

I've got a lot to say
I've got a lot to do
Is everybody great
Or is everybody fooled
I always get my way
Of course I always do
And now you know that
We're so happening
We're so happening
We're so happening
We're so happening
