

The Muffs, Numb

You and I are different and I know why
You are not completely there and you
Wonder why you don't cry

If you open up you'll see it's a new life
Wonder why you wonder why you're numb

I never liked to think or feel so you
Don't now
Never missed a thing you think but you
Wonder why you're not happy

If you open up you'll see it's a new life
Wonder why you wonder why you're numb

Until you hate you will never know
What love is
Until that day you will never feel
A thing yeah

If you open up you'll see it's a new life
Wonder why you wonder why you're numb
You wonder why you
Wonder why you're numb you
Wonder why you wonder why you're Numb
