The Muffs, Numb

You and I are different and I know why You are not completely there and you Wonder why you don't cry

If you open up you'll see it's a new life Wonder why you wonder why you're numb

I never liked to think or feel so you Don't now Never missed a thing you think but you Wonder why you're not happy

If you open up you'll see it's a new life Wonder why you wonder why you're numb

Until you hate you will never know What love is Until that day you will never feel A thing yeah

If you open up you'll see it's a new life Wonder why you wonder why you're numb You wonder why you Wonder why you're numb you Wonder why you wonder why you're Numb
