

The Naked Brothers Band, Everybody's Cried At

Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's laughed at least twice
And over and over again
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's laughed at least twice
And over and over again
I don't want you to get involved
Again
But I want you to join me in my quest
Again
Conflict with my life
Is the beginning
Conflict with my life
Is the beginning
Conflict with my life
Is the beginning
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's laughed at least twice
And over and over again
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's laughed at least twice
And over and over again
I don't want you to get involved
Again
But I want you to join me in my quest
Again
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's laughed at least twice
And over and over again
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's laughed at least twice
And over and over again
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's cried at least once
Everybody's cried at least once
[repeat]
