

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Hello, I am Your Heart

Hello, I am your heart
And you got me broken one too many times
Oh, hello, this is your heart speaking
And you got me hurt boy one too many times

Going away on a little vacation
I'll be gone quite a while
You won't have you no love making
You'll just have that ten cent smile
Goodbye, this is your heart leaving
I wish you the best of luck
While I'm healing up

Oh hello this is your heart
I just telephoned to see how you're getting by
Oh hello this is your heart calling
Well, I've got to run now but I'll drop you a line

I'm having fun on my little vacation
I may be gone a while
You won't have you no love making
You'll just have that ten cent smile
Hello this is your heart
I wish you the best of luck
While I'm healing up

Oh goodbye

Goodbye
