

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, I Am Your Heart

Hello, I am your heart
And you've got me broken one too many times
Oh, hello, this is your heart speaking
And you've got me hurt boy one too many times

Goin' away on a little vacation
I'll be gone quite a while
You won't have you no lovmakin'
You just have that ten cent smile

Goodbye, this is your heart leaving
I wish you the best luck while I'm healing up

Oh hello, this is your heart

I just telephoned to see how you're getting by.
Oh hello, this is your heart calling,
Well, I've got to run now, but I'll drop you a line.

I'm having fun on my little vacation
May be gone quite a while
You won't have you no lovmakin'
You just have that ten-cent smile

Hello, this is your heart
Wish you the best luck while I'm healing up

Oh goodbye
Goodbye
