

The Noisettes, Nothing To Dread

Don't be scared no, no
We ain't prepared no, no Dreamt of ventures and Woke up to the sound of the trenches you dig in my mind
Ah, you've got a lot to learn
What's a kingdom
To the man who has sold off his soul just to claim it Sirens, harlots, bohemians
Coloured haze of the street horizon
Ah, you've got a lot to learn
Oh, he's got some time to burn
Don't you know you got nothing to dread
Don't you know you got nothing to dread
Don't you know you got nothing dread though you know you got a coffin to drag
A hit and run is just no fun
Lock up your fine sons my dear
The grave of love
We'd cuddle up
Drink summer beer
And then smoke tea
She's like the devil to the moon she's howling, laughing, joking like a kingsnake crawling
And the herd and the masses, The rings and the turkey
The trimmings the trappings you know you've gotta have it all
Don't you know you got nothing to dread
Don't you know you got nothing to dread
Don't you know you got nothing to fear every girl's got a secret to wear
You know you got nothing to dread everyone's got a secret to wear
You know you've got nothing to dread every girl's got a secret to bury
To dread, to dread, to dread, to dread
To dread, to dread, to dread, to dread
