

The Noisettes, Signs

Where were they I do not know
Where are we now and does it show
We grow big small but sometimes we stay the same
Love is all I have to give
I was not born alone
Those little things, those precious things you gave me
Where were the signs, oh signs, yeah signs
Boy don't you throw your heart away to give up
We need the signs, oh signs, yeah signs
Before you're about to fade away
Dizzy heart and dizzy eye
If she said jump you say how high
Now you missed the wall
Because, the waters has run dry
Memories are a summer breeze
Time trickles of those shadows streams
Now boy you've brought me to my knees
There were no signs, oh signs, yeah signs
Boy don't you throw your heart away to give up
Signs, oh signs, yeah signs
Boy she's about to fade away there were no
Signs, oh signs, yeah signs
Girl don't you get back in the way to give it
Signs, oh signs, yeah signs, ow
Signs, oh signs
Girl don't you get back in the way to give it
Signs, oh
I am about to fade away
You stole my heart
Now we have to go back to a start
Now we are apart
You stole my heart
Now we have to go back to that part
I don't remember that part
You say I'm traumatized
With all those lows and highs
Now we are apart
I don't remember this part, oh yeah
Now we breath into the light you don't know
