

The Noisettes, Sister Rosetta (Capture The Spirit)

She's a caged animal
London by night
Crashing lights and cymbals
Queens of twilight
And if I was you
I'd use the loo
Before the long drive
We complement each other
Just like Satan and Christ
Baby, when I am laid to rest
May my laughter remain
Like your kiss blew me away
Capture the spirit
I gotta know right now
I see you before me
Won't you show me how
I wear my hair fizzy
I don't copy no style
But kissin and a-scrubbin'
Has consequences
You're on the bus again
Past Big Ben
With your rip off oyster card
Tell your A.S.B.O. friend to sling his hook
And go make your girl smile
'Cause baby, when I am laid in earth
May my laughter remain
Like your kiss blew me away
Left your scent on my pillow
Sister Rosetta was playin'
The congregation insane
Drinkin' in the house with no name
Capture the spirit
I gotta know right now
I see you before me
Won't you show me how
'Cause I am the landlord
You'll be my troubadour
Better before me?
Won't you show me how, how?
You gotta capture the spirit
'Cause I gotta know right now
I see you before me
Won't you show me how
I am the landlord
You'll be my troubadour
Was it better before me?
You just don't know how
Answer your spirit
And let it all hang out
I see you before me
Darlin' show me now
I am the landlord
You'll be my troubadour
Oh oh oh oh oh
Won't you show me how, how?
