

The Northern Pikes, Kiss Me You Fool

I know what I want to say to you my love
But when I try to speak the words slip away
Without you by my side I don't want to face the world
It's much too cold for me without your warm embrace

This bottle in front of me it slowly disappears
It doesn't scratch my memory of you my dear
Sad hours alone but I keep on standing by
You keep me hanging on and hope that I won't leave you

Me I've been in love and I am
And there's so much to understand
Kiss me you fool, kiss me you fool
Kiss me you fool before I must turn away from your heart

I crack my hand against the wall
And I curse myself and curse them all
For making me the way I am
And the way you are

I'm now shaking my head wondering what went wrong
You used to be smiling and elated with what we had going on You'd say "God I feel good inside, haven't felt like this in a while"
It hasn't happened in sometime and I guess that's it for the ride

Me I've been in love and I am
And there's so much to understand
Kiss me you fool, kiss me you fool
Kiss me you fool before I must turn away from your heart

you fool, kiss me you fool
Kiss me you fool before I must turn away from your heart

(from your heart, from your heart)
