

The Northern Pikes, Snow In June

My perfect life
May deceive me tonight
Realize
Overcast skies

The humble man
May just finally fight
Realize
Frustration

Now and then
It seems to happen
Time to time
Snow in June

My perfect life
May deceive me tonight
Forgive me
I haven't been myself, lately

I may survive
If I told ya your advice
What you mean to me

Now and then
It seems to happen
Time to time

Show you often
How things work out just fine
Tomorrow

Hmm

It's burning up
This dear friend of mine
Swallowed up, blue concern
For those who live this lie

I'm sorry, oh so sorry
For leaving you behind
It's burning up
This dear friend of mine

It's all screwed up
He wants to run and hide
But at the break of day
He's off and away
And dreads what he might find

I'm sorry, oh so sorry
For leaving you behind
It's burning up
This dear friend of mine

So please don't cry
We'll live on the moon
Smile with me, yea
When it snows in June

There's room for two
We live on the moon
Smile with me, yea

Bye, bye, goodbye
La la la la la la la la la la

Now and then
It seems to happen
Time to time
Snow in June
