

The Offspring, Dammit, I Changed Again

Hey come inside
While I stand here acting bold
(Can't stand to feel this way)
Clear out the cobwebs in my soul
This time I turn around and things have changed
Now I don't feel the same, yeah
Start a fight, I can't defend
One more time
Dammit, I changed again
Now I don't see things
The way I did before
(Can't stand to feel this way)
Things important yesterday
Just don't matter anymore
It doesn't make any sense
To feel so different everyday
(Can't stand to feel this way)
When nothing's changed except for me
Next time I turn around
and things have changed
Now I don't feel the same, yeah
Start a fight, I can't defend
One more time
Dammit, I changed again
I turn around
and things have changed
Now I don't feel the same, yeah
Start a fight, I can't defend
One more time
Dammit, I changed again
Turn around
Things have changed
Now I don't feel the same, yeah
Start a fight, I can't defend
One more time
Dammit, I changed again
Turn around
Things have changed
Now I don't feel the same, yeah
Start a fight, I can't defend
One more time
Dammit, I changed again
I see it
