The Offspring, Race Against Myself

All I want All I need Always lies just out of reach I've been coming up empty

I've run as fast As I can run I've pushed as hard as anyone Still there's nothing for me

I've tried as hard as I can I've taken all I can stand But I am running a race Against myself

Burning out Strung along Now my sorrow is my song My whole world is half-hearted

For my pain I have none After all is said and done Now I'm back where I started

I've gone as far as I can I've taken all I can stand But I am running a race Against myself
