

The Only Ones, Out There In The Night

You left that morning
You gave me no warning
You were my best friend
Oh, I can't live without you
There was something about you
I want you back again

Baby, sometimes I think of you
Out there in the night
All the comforts of home have been denied

People find it hard to understand
I never cried before
One thing's for certain
There's nothing around that
Could make me cry no more

Baby, sometimes I think of you
Out there in the night
All the comforts of home have been denied

(guitar solo)

Compared to all of them
You stand out
You give me pure unspoilt love
They're all reaching and grabbing
All you did was give me
Love and love and love and love

Sometimes I think of you
Out there in the night
Roaming the empty streets
Looking for your life

Sometimes I think of you
Out there in the night
You ain't here with me
And nothing seems right

Sometimes I think of you
Out there in the night
