

The Only Ones, Watch You Drown

You're alone tonight, once again
For once in your lonely life, you have a friend
Oh you're alone tonight, had to end

But you think I will come back baby
Whenever you want me to
You know that's something
That I, won't get used to Come back baby
We could start all over again

(guitar break)

You've oughta be careful now, you're out at sea
There's so many smooth talkers around, not as fine as me
I'll be there to watch you drown, finally

You know they're gonna love you and leave you
It's such a stupid/sweeping contradiction
Makes you happy, but then your whole life through
So come back baby
We could start all over again

(guitar break)

I remember this girl a long time ago, just another face
I looked for some sign of concern, not a trace
Then she invited me, back to her place

Which means I'm gonna come back and love her
And be there and care completely
Come back baby, doesn't mean much to me
Destroy each other
Then we could start all over again

(guitar break)
