

The Operation M.D., Obvious

I'm a guy who was screaming in silence
I'm no better than business men in black suits
I'm a guy who was screaming like sirens Understand that's the way I am and That's obvious, cause I'm the man who does bad things friend
That's obvious, and I'm the man who does bad things
He's the guy who was looking for violence
He's no better than the man we call president
He's the guy who would run out of patience Nothing's better than an unlit cigarette and That's obvious, cause he's the man who talks bad things friend
That's obvious, cause he's the man who does bad things
oh ya
What you say to me, is half as bad as I would say and what you say to me, is half as bad as I would
That's obvious, cause I'm a man who talks bad things friend
That's obvious, cause I'm the man who does bad things
oh yeah
