

The Orange Lights, The Love Back In

Sometimes it just don't make no sense at all
I'm still trying to find a reason for it all
My life i thought it would be something beautiful
And now it feels like there is nothing there at all anymore
Give me the sunshine instead of the rain
All that i want is to be happy again
Give me the sunshine instead of the pain
Give me the sunshine
We've got to let the love back in again
Let the love back in again
We've got to let the love back in again
Let the love back in again
Why does it have to be so hard?
How did you and me get where we are?
How did you become invisible?
You might as well just not be there at all anymore
Give us the sunshine instead of the rain
All that we want is to be happy again
Give us the sunshine instead of the pain
Give us the sunshine
We've got to let the love back in again
Let the love back in again
We've got to let the love back in again
Let the love back in again
We've got to let the love back in again
Let the love back in again
We've got to let the love back in again
Let the love back in again
