

The Ordinary Boys, In Awe Of The Awful

You barged into this a lie
And now you're far too deep to stop
When your eyes were full of fire
And you didn't feel tense

When you lie to one another
It's that there's nothing left to say
The words 'I Love You' fill awkward silences

And life just cannot...STOP!
If you've gone and messed it up
And I won't be here, no I won't comfort you
So get your act together

Your matrimonial fulfillment started life as harmless lies
Thanks to bodily requirements
You are walking blind

And life just cannot...STOP!
If you've gone and messed it up
And I won't be here, no I won't comfort you
Oh get your act together

And life just cannot...
And life just cannot...
And life just cannot...
STOP!
