

The Other Ones, Moments

No one knows the reason
It simply isn't said
No one knows the season
What thoughts are in your head

I'm telling you almost every night
(It's the moment) (calling)
But does it show when we are walking or talking
(It's only moments)

CHORUS

Tell me what, tell me how (moments of pleasure)
Tell me now what you're giving to me
It's a moment, just a moment
Tell me what, tell me how (moments of pleasure)
Tell me now what you're giving to me
It's a moment

(Secret moments)
(Secret moments)

No one knows the reason
You keep it locked in your head
No one knows the silence
There's nothing left to be said

It's such a thrill, my cup is filled
My head is hot, my skin achill
And curiously for me to show
You've really let your feelings go

I fell for you, you're falling too
Don't tell me now, it's only moments calling

CHORUS

No one knows the reason
(It's only moments calling)
(It's only moments calling)
No one knows the silence
(It's only moments calling)
(It's only moments calling)
There's nothing left to be said
(It's only moments calling)
