

The Other Tribe, My Girl

My girl, we were naked
My girl, we were naked whilst the sky got dressed

Drips from the sky, lean back and fly
With half of smile, shut eyes, all I need is you
Lay here a while
Here from the sky
Of no way tonight
Dressed in curtains of light
Don?t come close to you my modern light
You feel the love and cosmic fire?

My girl, we were naked
My girl, we were naked whilst the sky got dressed

A whole fortress, for unlikely event
Pleading for the sky to explore the light, natural light
You feel the love and Norwegian fire?

My girl, we were naked
My girl, we were naked whilst the sky got dressed
My girl, stay low till you catch your breath
Do you know, we were naked whilst the sky got dressed
My girl don?t ever leave my side
My girl don?t ever leave my side
My girl don?t ever leave my side

My girl, we were naked
My northern light
My girl, we were naked whilst the sky got dressed
My northern light
My girl, stay low till you catch your breath
My northern light
Do you know, we were naked whilst the sky got dressed
My northern light
