

The Paddingtons, Alright In The Morning

(In my ear, in my ear)

With a whisper in my ear
And a shrug on my shoulder
I couldn't talk
I thought you were much older
Why are we talking to ourselves?

Can I take you by the hand?
And I'll take you for a wander
I told you once, couldn't wait no longer
Why are we talking to ourselves?

And it'll be alright in the morning
Alright in the evening, baby with you
It'll be alright in the morning
Alright in the evening, baby with you

Every time I come around
I can feel it getting colder
Same old walk alone
Could I be any bolder?
Why am I talking to myself?

Take you by the hand
And I'll take you for a wander,
I told you once, couldn't wait no longer
Why am I talking to myself?

And it'll be alright in the morning
Alright in the evening, baby with you
It'll be alright in the morning
Alright in the evening, baby with you

That boy, he didn't have much
And the one I loved wouldn't let us keep us in touch, why?
That boy, he didn't have much
And the one I loved wouldn't let us keep us in touch, why?

And when the ... man came round he was true (?)
To all the things he said to me, it was do
And when that ... man came round it was true (?)
To all the things he said to me said he'd do

Alright in the morning
Alright in the evening, baby with you
It'll be alright in the morning
Alright in the evening, baby with you
