

The Panic Channel, Why Cry

I've been feeling lonesome I'm down, don't know what to do I let you lie to me
plant seeds inside
to see them grow
only to leave them to die

I learned my lesson
I won't be forgetting
I won't give my heart out without suspecting
why cry
why cry
why cry
for you

I've been lost and finding out that I've been such a fool you thought you'd stick around until the day you found someone to make me obsolete

I learned my lesson
I won't be forgetting
I won't give my heart out
without suspecting
why cry
why cry
why cry
why cry
for you

I learned my lesson
I won't be forgetting
I won't give my heart out
without suspecting
