

The Partridge Family, Hello, Hello

Hello, hello, I love you so Yet it all began when I ran into you not so long ago
and since that day I've wanted to say hello, oh, oh

Hello, would you like to go to a place with me where we can watch the hours go by?
You're sure someone I'd like to get to know, oh, oh

I still don't know your name and I couldn't care less
I like what I already see Whatever sign you are or what's your address
don't really matter much to me

Just wanna say hello, hello, I love you so
and since that day I've wanted to say hello, oh, oh

BREAK:
I still don't know your name and I couldn't care less
I like what I already see
Whatever sign you are or what's your address
don't really matter much to me

Just wanna say hello, hello, I love you so
and since that day I've wanted to say hello, oh, oh

Hello, hello.....
