

The Perishers, All Over Now

I no longer pray for tomorrow
Ive started to pray for today
`cause I still cant feel nothing but sorrow
And I do all I can to make that go away
Well its all over now
Were through somehow
Too bad I couldnt solve your riddle in time
Its all over now
I no longer long for the summer
And I no longer care bout the snow
A just know I cant take this much longer
I wonder how low one can go
