

The Perishers, The Night

I guess you feel hurt, well Im feeling hurt too
Feel free to blame me, if you dont already do
But I want you to know that Id change if I could
I wanna make sure that thats well understood
The Night, a journey through dark towards light
Despite your glowing eyes this is night
And all is calm, were safe, were warm

The Night

I guess you feel lost well Im feeling lost too
Feel free to hate me if you dont already do
But I want you to know that Ive always been true
And if you promise to help me then I will help you through
The Night, this journey through dark towards light
Despite your glowing eyes this is night
All is calm, all is calm

The Night

Lets make sure that well do what's right

The Night

A journey through black towards white

And all is calm, were safe, were warm

The Night
