

The Plan, Stay Right Here

The sun in shines
I've been drinking all day
Well I'm feeling all calm
I'll lie and cheat to stay right here

I don't care for what they want me to do
Well I find me a way
I'll lie and cheat to stay right here

Couldn't move me that finger unless it's blessed by the Gods
I'm just fooling a bad way
But I'll knock it one day

Look around
I don't see nothing I want
I've got shit up inside that I'm thinking of While lying here
