

The Poise Rite, A Soul To Drink

Take small steps now baby, take your time I'm in no rush cos' you're forever mine and as I stare into those deep blue eyes I see the ocean, I see the ocean?

Forever we sing our reason in rhyme
it steals our soul but gives us wine
to help us drink disappointment
in drowns of sorrow
Forever a tale of drinking the wine
It steals our soul but makes you mine..

I travelled far to see you except this heart I've made a love note for you from broken parts I'll sing to ya, I'll carry on ships and tides over the sea into the ocean

Forever we sing our reason in rhyme
it steals our soul but gives us wine
to help us drink disappointment
in drowns of sorrow
Forever a tale of drinking the wine
It steals our soul but makes you mine.. to bake my bread, not fight, instead make love till morrow
