

The Polyphonic Spree, Section 22 (Running Away)

We shake it, we take it, we die and soul
Some it, strike it, raid it to go

I'm projecting and reflecting desire
For you to come into my life
Parades of disdain will outshine them all
For me and you to get along

It's like running away with the wind in my face
It's like flying "(flying)"
And you and I are open wide

It's like running away with the wind in my face
It's like flying "(flying)"
And you and I are open wide

I feel so excited and delighted today
'Cause you decided to be in my life

It's like running away with the wind in my face
It's like flying "(flying)"
And you and I are open wide

It shows, the electric show

I get around the world on your freeways
It's true when you let it go
I get around the world on your freeways
It's true when you let it go
