

The Polyphonic Spree, Section 28 (Guaranteed N

Guaranteed nightlite where everybody shines
I wanna try to wake up with you
A social climb hideout where fantasies run dry
I never want to face that with you
But you never know when your love is low, has decided to go home

Guaranteed nightlite where everybody finds
A talk-talk playground that you
A factory showdown, the end is just reviewed
I never want to face that again
But you never know when your love is low, has decided to go home

Remember the night
You said you had a vision
Of all of these wonderful feelings going by

I know that it's right
I know you're on a mission
But all of this good guy wonder goes on and on and on

Guaranteed nightlite where everybody shines
I wanna try to wake up with you
A social climb hideout where fantasies run dry
I never want to face that with you
But you never know when your love is low, has decided to go home

Remember the night
You said you had a vision
Of all of these wonderful feelings going by

I know that it's right
I know you made decisions
But all of this good guy wonder goes on and on
