

The Presidents of the United States of America, C

sugar's only sweetness salt is ocean tears and you were my only weakness for years and years and years you little yellow sweetie you were hiding in a jar now my mind is gone completely take off the lid and there you are you're my candy

well the devil she made sweet candy took 6 days and nights to dream on the 7th day she rested woke up early and made ice cream now the devil she must be a dentist with deep jawbreaker eyes red rope hair gum drop lips cotton candy thighs

chocolate lava stole my body and aftertaste stole my mind left me dangling down defenseless and then sweet candy she said goodbye now my teeth are worn and useless my eyes too sunk to see my tongue swole up to twice its size and all i wanna do is eat candy my candy

my candy my candy
suckin' on my candy
