The Pretenders, Good Bye

I remember holding on to you All them long and lonely nights I put you through Some where in there I'm sure I made you cry But I can't remember if we said good bye

I recalled all them nights down in Mexico The one place I might never go in my life again Was I just off somewhere just to hide But I can't remember if we said good bye

I only miss you every now and then Like the soft breeze blowin on from the Caribbean Each November I break down and cry But I can't remember if we said good bye

I recalled all them nights down in Mexico the one place I might never go in my life again Was I just off somewhere just to hide But I can't remember if we said good bye

Good bye
