

The Project Hate MCMXCIX, Resurrected For Ma

You condemned me to this life
You left me to die
In ashes...

We find our way
You condemned me to this life
My love withers here, and dies
In ashes...

The ones to follow the whore
Your kingdom will be no more
We bring damnation and hate
We conquer and devastate
Your fucking saviour is dead
Our domination, with lead
We claim our right to the throne
With Satan by our side
Elimination complete

His second birth obsolete
Your fucking saviour is dead
Grant domination, with lead
The ones to follow the whore
Your kingdom will be no more
We claim our right to the throne
With Satan by our side

You condemned me to this life
You left me to die
In ashes...

We find our way
You condemned me to this life
My love withers here, and dies
In ashes...

Farewell my love...

There's a way to escape this life
Trust me, take my hand...
And prayers won't help you now...
Death won't wait, there's no glory in God
No resurrection

The bible is cursed

Behold, he's gone, the Nazarene son
Behold, we are victorious, we are the ones
Slowly floats the river where hate and pride unite
Come wrath, come vengeance, as we have yet more wars to fight

I'm on my knees

A time at will

I'm on my knees

A time for us to part

March eternal, birth of the infernal
Armageddon, the name, our unholy domain

Bring him back for further torture
Creation undone, everything holy is gone

Death eternal, death of the infernal
Armageddon, the name, our unholy domain

March eternal, birth of the infernal
Armageddon is our name

Our love wither here and die

This story had to end in blood

You wear the crown of thorns, your written fate

Father Satan, it's your time to dominate

You will not feel pain near the end, my dear

Your memory shall remain with me

As I weep upon your grave

My love...

My love...

The ones who followed the whore
Your kingdom is now no more

We brought damnation and hate
We conquer and devastate
Your fucking saviour is dead
Our domination, with lead
We have the rights to the throne
With Satan by our side
Your fucking saviour is dead!
Your fucking saviour is dead!
Your fucking saviour is dead!
Your fucking saviour is dead!
Your fucking saviour is dead!
Your fucking saviour is dead!
Your fucking saviour is dead!
