The Psychedelic Furs, All About You

now the time is almost done the race for last is almost run and almost paid

from where i stand, i've got a view

out of all the miles of you

where i wait

i know what's true

all about you

through my window there's a sound there's a face in every crowd

a lot like you

is what you wanted what you took?

all the lines that leave you shook leave me cold

i know what's true

all about you

someone's knocking at my door down my stairs, i hear you call but i won't wake

the seconds move the time along and all my silence seems so long

i don't break

i know what's true

all about you

i know what's true

all about you

i know what's true
