

The Psychedelic Furs, Angels Don't Cry

i try to remember a kiss and i only get sorrow
and yesterday's faded away now there's only tomorrow and everything passes and changes and comes to an end i know but nothing is written but old news again and again
i know that it's true
there's too many tears
but angels don't cry
now i see a face in your eyes but you don't remember my name we're always a step out of time now ain't that a shame and you've been alone for too long and nobody cries
if you want to see all of my tears take a look in your eyes
believe it or not
i know that it's true
there's too many tears
i could walk away
or i could walk on by
or make it all come true
or say it's all a lie
there's no more tears
when you're out of time and i might fade away tonight if you close your eyes
i know that it's true
there's too many tears
i could walk away
i could walk on by
