

The Pussycat Dolls, React

when I get messed up at the party I make a scene and get upset but when I wake up in the morning you bring me breakfast in bed and act like there's nothing to forget maybe, I should count my blessings that you're just that type so call me masochistic

but sometimes I want to fight

Every time i leave you pull me closer I hang up the phone, you call me back why don't you mess me round like you're supposed to you're turning me cruel cos I am just wanting to react you're turning me cruel cos I am just wanting to react if I say 'jump', you just say 'how high'?

I think you might love me to death the way you do me boy, you're too nice you gas up when I wanna be losing y breathe

maybe, I should count my blessings
so call me masochistic
but sometimes I want to fight

looking for a little confrontation now I know that nice guys turn me bad the less you do the ore it makes me crazy you're turning me cruel cos I am just wanting to react you're turning me cruel cos I am just wanting to react
