

The Queers, Another Girl

Well she says she'll always be true when any guy'll do
You should've seen who she just blew
And then she tries to tell you she loves you woah woah

I've seen her type before, don't wanna see her anymore
You gotta leave her behind, and find another girl

You know she'll only bring you hurt, make you feel like a jerk
Spend your money while you work
And wear her lingerie for other guys woah woah

(chorus)

Someone to spend a little time, why don't you leave that girl behind
You gotta leave her behind, and find another girl

(1st verse, chorus)
