

The Queers, Definitely

Funny thoughts and funny words I've said
Are rattling around inside my head
This world ain't exactly what it seems
These days things are weird and everybody's mean
I'm doing okay, don't you know, can't you see
I guess I got you and I guess you got me
The shit that I take and the shit that I hear
You better sit down and give me your ear

Definitely alright, definitely outta sight
Definitely so cool you're my girl
