The Queers, Fuck This World

I called in sick to work today and stayed in bed 'til noon And now I just don't care what's going on outside this room Things aren't getting better My future's not too bright Fuck the world I'm hanging out with you tonight

Me and you will walk around so pointlessly Smashing things, jacked up on way too much caffeine I'm really going no nowhere I hate this shitty life Fuck the world I'm hanging out with you tonight