

The Queers, I Gotta Girlfriend

She don't care what I think, she's don't care what I do
Even though things don't go right, I know her love for me is true
I love her, I want you to know
I'd love to scream out "I do"
Sometime soon you'll realize she's tougher than you

I got a girlfriend (x4)
I got a girlfriend and now things turn out okay
