

The Queers, I Never Got The Girl

I never got the girl till you
Came along and said, "I wouldn't mind to hang around a while."

Now the sun - it's always shining every day
Because you're never far away.
And things are going fine.

Time stood still forever, and then you came along.
I used to say never ever will I find a girl
To hang around and make me feel I'm not a clown.

Stupid girls before were always leaving.
Listen up, believe me I'm believing.
I never got the girl till I got you.

I'm so sick of hanging around alone,
Being bored and staying at home.
I'm so sick of singing the blues.
I've paid all my dues; I got you.
