

The Queers, Terminal Rut

I wake up and smoke a joint.
I love my life 'cause there's no point.
I hit the couch; turn on the tube.
I love to watch the Family Feud.

I'm all fucked up; it's time for me
To change the channel on TV.
It's getting dark; it's time to crash.
I wish I had some real good hash.

Go to the sink; I love to spit.
I'm in a rut; don't give a shit.
